Tenant Rights

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

A landlord can refuse to rent to a person based on:

a) The tenant’s source of income is unstable, insufficient to pay the rent, or the income source is illegal; or

b) The tenant has not made rent payments on time; or

c) The tenant has been the source of past complaints from neighbors (unless complaints were discriminatory); or

d) The tenant intends to occupy the house with more people than can be legally accommodated; or

e) For any other reason, so long as that reason is legal in the United States, the State of New York, and does not involve discriminatory practices.

A landlord cannot discriminate against individuals their race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or source of income.

Therefore, a landlord cannot:

a) Refuse to rent or deny a person housing accommodation based on the above list; or

b) Change or limit the person’s lease agreement because of the above list; or

c) Advertise the apartment or house with certain rules of specifications based on the above list.

In addition, a landlord cannot:

a) Try to influence a person to sell/rent any apartment in a particular neighborhood because the neighborhood is made up of people of a particular race, creed, color, national origin, sex, disability, familial status, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military status or source of income.

b) Refuse to allow for changes in the apartment or house in order to accommodate a person with disabilities.

If you have questions or think you’ve experienced discrimination pertaining to your housing situation, contact:

Important Resources to Know

Call and Resolution Center
311 is a toll-free number for non-emergency calls to police and other government officials. It allows residents to register quality of life complains and concerns. You can register concerns pertaining to animals, forest-ry/trees, graffiti, sanitation/trash/recycling, housing/inspections, parking, streets, sidewalks, and utilities.

Each service request is assigned a service number and the caller is sent a letter letting them know who will provide the service and an expected date for resolution.

LEAD
If your home was built before 1978 it probably contains lead paint. Lead is a poison, and children who breathe or ingest lead dust or paint chips can get very sick.

Call 712-5500 or visit www.wipeoutlead.com to find out how to get your children tested and how you can make your home lead-safe. Lead poisoning is 100% preventable so you can protect your family:

- Tell your landlord about peeling or chipping paint.
- Clean up paint chips.
- Clean floors, window frames, window sills, and other surfaces weekly with warm water and soap.
- Wash children’s hands often, especially before they eat and before nap and bedtime.
- Keep children from chewing on window sills, or anything that is painted.

ASTHMA
Tips for creating healthier homes for asthmatics:

- Don’t smoke in your home.
- Take shoes off before entering the house.
- Avoid scented candles or room fresheners.
- Change air conditioning filters regularly.
- Vacuum and dust your home often.
- Avoid feather/down pillows/comforters (use synthetic).
- If possible, remove any carpeting.
- Clean up the clutter in your home - minimize dust.
- Run dehumidifier in basement or other damp spaces.
- Clean visible mold, replace moldy shower curtains - if mold is on ceiling tiles, ask landlord to repair.
- Keep pets clean and out of sleeping/play areas.
- Cockroaches trigger asthma: keep home clean to prevent, use bait traps (not spray) if you have infestation.
